

Dancing for Dosh

On Sat 26th October 2013, The Jacqueline Fox School of Dance staged a show at the Playhouse Theatre in Weston-Super-Mare called CELEBRATE in aid of charity including the Nicola Corry Support Foundation.

The journey of dance, song and drama took the audience on a whirlwind ride through many happy historical occasions. NCSF have received an amazing £2000 from the event so far....

This is a huge amount which will help so many families coping with cancer—a massive thanks goes out to everyone involved.

Partying in Portishead

Ian and Charlotte Joyner and their friends held the 2nd Annual Music Gig in Portishead on Friday 25th April 2014. It was a fantastic evening held at the Working Man's Club, which is an excellent venue. The evening showcased two local acts; Abbie & Becky and Fake Republic, who were truly outstanding and a raffle was held mid set with wonderful prizes. The event was a great success and raised a huge £938 which is being doubled by Adobe, thank you so much Ian and gang for such a fun filled event, don't miss out on the next one...

Have these people inspired you to get fit in the New Year? If so, why don't you sign up to a challenge and raise money for NCSF!

A MASSIVE THANK YOU to.....

Bristol County Conservative Club, who chose NCSF as their charity of the year 2013/14.

On Friday 16th May 2014, the club presented a cheque for just over £1600, which is AMAZING!!

Christmas Crafts

On Saturday 16th November 2013, NCSF hosted another successful Christmas Craft Fair in Henleaze. Fun was had by all with yummy cakes, lucky dip for the children, homemade Christmas gifts and chutneys. An incredible sum of £650 was raised on the day, which will be doubled by Adobe!

Thank you to everyone who helped, with special thanks to Wendy and Carole for organising the event and Ian for donating the stunning hampers for the raffle.

Pamper at Julies

Rebecca Jones, a Clinique consultant at Boots, donated her time and expertise on a dreary Saturday in Portishead by carrying out an informative beauty demonstration.

Fun was had by all and thanks to a raffle, refreshments and delicious home made cakes the event raised £132—well done to all involved and thank you to Rebecca and everyone that attended.

Dinney's Bake Off

The Dinneywicks Inn, Kingswood, Wotton Under Edge, held their 2nd Annual Bakeoff on 14th March 2014, in aid of NCSF and Kidney Research UK. There were 3 categories in the event; Sponge/whole cake, Tray Bakes and Savoury

There were lots of yummy entries and the event was a great success; £160 was raised on the night which Adobe doubled, so both charities received this fantastic amount.

Thank you to Chris and everyone at the Dinneys and for

Pontoon Winners

CONGRATULATIONS to Claire Filmer and Clare Gillard who are the recent winners of the latest Football Pontoon winning a lovely £300.

Claire Filmer won an amazing £300 when her team Leicester City got exactly 21 goals in the full 10 weeks, at only a fiver a month that's not a bad return!!!.....Claire said "what a lovely surprise ...I am booking a luxury night away with my winnings and to be honest I never even notice the £5 going out of my account each month but I will definitely notice £300 going in."

Clare Gillards team reached 21 goals in only six weeks, so Clare takes a healthy £180 winnings.

Our Pontoon runs all year, so you can join at any time, for just £5 a month. Each game gives you a chance to win up to £300!

Please visit www.ncsf.org.uk/pontoon for further information!

C'mon you Pink Panthers.....

NCSF United are still going strong, they finished mid table in the Bristol Downs Association Football League and ended with a two all draw against Durdham Down Adult School.

Well done lads! NCSF United (Pink Panthers) play on a Saturday, why don't you go along and watch them next season, you can't miss them in their bright pink shirts! Or you can follow them by reading the witty match updates kindly reported by Clive Dawe.
